Unit 3: Race, Language, and Identity

Cycle 1: Drawn Together

Lesson 1

Unit Questions	How do language, race, and identity impact people's daily lives?
Cycle Discussion Question	How could you convince someone that people can keep a connection to a culture when they don't speak all the languages of that culture?
Cycle Language Targets	Vocabulary: Bilingual, Bicultural, Comprehend, Communicate, Confidence, Self-conscious	Morphology: Bi-/multi-, -ent/-ence, -ant/-ance
		Syntax: Complex sentences and coordinating conjunctions
Lesson 1 Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss the words bilingual, bicultural, and comprehend. • Read and analyze the text, "Drawn Together", to think about how speaking the same language is not the only way to communicate.

Introduce Cycle and Lesson (4 min)	Introduce Cycle <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Today, we are starting a new lesson cycle. This cycle is about how our language and communication can connect us to our cultural identity. • In this cycle, we will learn about the ways bicultural and multicultural people connect with their different cultural identities. We will also learn ideas about the historical importance of keeping connected to our family. • We will gather evidence to be able to discuss this question, "How could you convince someone that people can keep a connection to a culture when they don't speak all the languages of that culture?" Have students turn to the Graphic Organizer on p. 3 of the Student Workbook. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will use this graphic organizer to take notes throughout the cycle. Introduce Lesson In the next couple of lessons, we will read and analyze the text, "Drawn Together", and think about the question, "How does language impact your everyday life, identity, and your ability to connect with your community and family?" Remember, when someone says something is part of their identity, it can mean that it is a part of who they are.

Reading
Embedded
Language
(25 min)

Open “Drawn Together” Powerpoint.

- SLIDE 1: Introduce the book you will read together, “Drawn Together”.
- SLIDE 2: The six words we will be learning more about and playing with in this unit are bilingual, bicultural, comprehend, communicate, confidence, and self-conscious.
- SLIDE 3: Today we’ll be working with the first three words: bicultural, bilingual, and comprehend.
- SLIDES 4 - 11: Bilingual
 - Work through slides using the language in the Powerpoint as a guide.
- SLIDES 12-20: Bicultural
 - Work through slides using the language in the Powerpoint as a guide.
- SLIDES 21 - 27: Comprehend
 - Work through slides using the language in the Powerpoint as a guide.

Guided Reading of “Drawn Together”

Now we’re going to start reading “Drawn Together”. Let’s open our books.

Have students silently read (or guide student reading) the whole book.

- For silent reading: Once students have finished reading, return to the text and ask one or more questions following the guidance below.
- For guided reading: Use the guidance below as comprehension checkpoints.

- BOOK COVER/TITLE PAGE: Read the title, author’s name, and illustrator’s name. What do you notice about this book? What do you think this book will be about?
- PAGE 4 (pictured below): What cultures are represented here? How are the boy and grandfather individually feeling about the visit?

- PAGE 6 (pictured below): What do you notice about how they are communicating with each other? What is happening, and why do you think it is happening?

- PAGE 10 (pictured below): How are they (or aren't they) comprehending what the other one is saying? Do you think they consider themselves bilingual? Why do you think the boy says that he gave up on talking?

- PAGE 16 (pictured below): How do we see their bicultural identity communicated in this image-based conversation? Why does the boy say that they are happily "speechless"? Why do you think this book is called "Drawn Together"?

The CLAVES Curriculum

Post-Reading Discussion/Writing

Remind students of the lesson's question: "How does language impact your everyday life, identity, and your ability to connect with your community and family?"

- Write some notes in your Graphic Organizer (p. 3 of Student Workbook) that will help you as we build up to answering the question, "How could you convince someone that people can keep a connection to a culture when they don't speak all the languages of that culture?"

Wrap Up
(1 min)

Close Lesson

Nice job everyone! Next time we will retell the book and view a video to look for additional evidence. We will also practice noticing similarities and differences among word parts and whole words.

Today, we are going to explore that a bit further. Guide Extended Language Work Let’s turn to p. 9 of the Student Workbook. You will see the first page of the “Language and Identity” text that we just read. In this copy, though, the coordinating conjunctions have been bolded. Your job is to go through the text, draw a square around the coordinating conjunction (or FANBOYS), and then underline the two ideas that are connected by the coordinating conjunction. The first sentence is an example of what that should look like. There are 5 more coordinating conjunctions in the text. Read through and put a box around those, and then underline the ideas that they are connecting. Modeling the Activity: FOR EXAMPLE, the next coordinating conjunction is “so”. The FANBOYS chart shows that “so” is used when there is a cause and effect relationship between two ideas. Let’s put a square around “so”. Now, let’s underline the first part of the sentence (“Our languages are a big part of our identities”) and the second part of the sentence (“it is important to understand that no language is better than any other language”). How do these two parts of the sentence have a cause-and-effect relationship? <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Review each coordinating conjunction that has been identified.● Discuss how the coordinating conjunctions connect two ideas in the sentences. Dialogic Reasoning facilitation moves

Move	Description	Example
Prompt	Ask students to be more explicit in their argumentation by asking them to state their position or reason, provide evidence, or respond to a challenge.	Is there evidence in the story that supports what you are saying? Can anyone think of another reason or example?
Ask for clarification	Ask students to clarify what they mean, particularly when they use vague or imprecise language.	Do you mean [X] or [Y]? Do you mean to say [paraphrase]...?
Challenge	Present countering ideas or ideas that students haven't thought about yet.	Some people might say [give a reason from the opposing view point]. If you were [CHARACTER] would you...
Encourage to participate	Ask more quiet students to contribute to the discussion.	Carlos, anything that you'd like to add here?
Summarize	Sum up positions presented by students, or describe the discussion process.	You seem to be pretty much split on whether it was bad luck or a bad case of nerves. Some of you believe it was bad luck, cause sometimes things just happen, and some of you thought it was nerves.
Foster independence	Encourage students to talk to each other, rather than to and through the teacher.	Hands are down. Let's talk to each other.

The CLAVES Curriculum

Redirect

Ask students to consider discussion question or present a follow up question.

So if we take what you're saying, and bring it back to the question at hand should she speak up to the teacher or should she let it ride?
